HYBRID ROTARY-JUNE 21, 2021: MITCH EDGEWORTH, HCA TRISTAR

Mitch Edgeworth has over 23 years of extensive healthcare experience, serving in a variety of operational and strategic leadership roles. Based in Nashville, Tennessee, Mr. Edgeworth has served as President of HCA Healthcare's TriStar Division since January 2021, where he oversees a network of 20 hospitals and multiple access points including free standing ERs, oncology centers, behavioral health centers, physician practices, urgent care centers, imaging centers and telemedicine across Tennessee, Southern Kentucky, and Northwest Georgia.

Prior to moving into the role of Division President, Mr. Edgeworth oversaw the Chattanooga, Northwest Georgia, and Atlanta markets for the HCA Healthcare TriStar Division as the Chief Administrative Officer South. In this role, Mitch supported hospital and division leadership to further expand the service footprint by utilizing an integrated approach to network access, regional outreach, hospital operations and strategic planning. Prior to joining HCA Healthcare, Mr. Edgeworth served as the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for Vanderbilt University Adult Hospital at Vanderbilt University Medical Center where he led all aspects of operational performance for the adult clinical enterprise. Prior to joining Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Mr. Edgeworth served as Regional Vice President for Quorum Health Resources where he was responsible for the operational performance of 12 hospitals located across multiple states.
