Under Mitch's leadership, Vision has received many awards, as well as recognition for its efforts in development, community service and design. Vision has received the Marriott International Development Partner of the Year Award- Full Service, Marriott International Partnership Circle Award, Marriott International Developer of the Year Award- Select Service, Marriott International Serve 360 Award, the Developer of the Year Award for the Hampton Brand by Hilton Worldwide, and the Multi-Brand Developer of the Year Award by Hilton Worldwide.

Mitch serves on the Marriott International Franchise Advisory Council, the Hilton Worldwide Owner's Advisory Council and the Executive Committee of American Hotel and Lodging Association. Mitch maintains his presence on boards of local organizations that support education and economic development in Vision's hometown of Chattanooga, TN, and he is an advocate for ending human trafficking in the hospitality industry. His efforts have earned him national recognition, which includes his most recent honor of receiving the NSDAR Americanism Award.

Mitch holds a Bachelor's degree and a Master's degree in Civil Engineering from the University of Tennessee.
