SPEAKER:

Dr. Justin Robertson

Superintendent Hamilton County Schools

Dr. Justin Robertson serves as Superintendent for Hamilton County Schools, headquartered in Chattanooga, TN. As superintendent, Dr. Robertson has the responsibility to inspire, lead, and direct the district's administrative, instructional, and operational teams in setting and achieving key performance goals for the school system. As superintendent, Dr. Robertson's primary objective is to accomplish the district's mission: to equip students with the knowledge, skills, and supports to thrive in life.

Dr. Robertson began his career as a teacher and coach at Boyd-Buchanan School in Chattanooga before relocating to Memphis, where he worked as a teacher and school-level administrator in Shelby County Schools. Dr. Robertson returned to Chattanooga to join Hamilton County Schools in 2008 as an assistant principal at Normal Park Upper. The following year, he was named principal at Lookout Valley Elementary School.
