Rotary Club of Cleveland welcomed Natosha Versa and Yaquia Walker of Biskit NV for this week's program. Natosha is a 2nd generation restaurant owner who dreamed of a southern hospitality restaurant with a feeling of family when you walk in the door.

Natosha has over 20 years of hospitality and foodservice experience. She completed her MBA with a concentration in Healthcare Administration. After almost 20 years in corporate America and a lot of planning with her family, Natosha envisioned the concept for Biskit NV. She is now a full-time restaurant owner who is expanding her brand's footprint into mobile foodservice. The Biskit NV food truck will be operational by the end of this month.

Biskit NV offers made-from-scratch comfort food. Popular menu items include the chicken biscuit with homemade batter and the brisket biscuit. Most of the items are from recipes passed down in their family. They also offer catering, box lunches and meal catering for holidays, such as Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Biskit NV is located in downtown Cleveland. Their hours of operation are Thursday thru Saturday from 7:30 am until 2:00 pm.
