October 31st Program:

Jennifer Pennell-Aslinger
Jr. Achievement of the Ocoee Region

It's Non-Profit Tuesday and we have a great one! Junior Achievement is a great organization that is front and center with students in Bradley, Polk and McMinn Counties! They do a great job educating our students on the subject of LIFE!

Rotarians Participated in Service of the Cleveland Half Marathon and 5K

Cleveland Rotary is one of many clubs all over the world that exists to serve the local community in which club members live as one of its primary functions. On October 21st, local Rotarians participated in service of the Cleveland Half Marathon and 5K by encouraging runners, directing runners, and fulfilling miscellaneous tasks as needed. This isn't for accolades, but the true heart of a Rotarian.

From Great-grandparents to the Newest Additions!

On Tuesday during lunch, we welcomed three new members to our Rotary family. Amongst those were two great-grandchildren.

From great-grandparents to the newest addition, our Rotary family spans five incredible generations. We cherish the wisdom of the elders, the laughter of the middle generations, and the curiosity of the youngest. Together, we're a tapestry of service, memories, and stories that bind us across time.

Here is the lineage:

Grover Cleveland Brown
 Kenneth H. Brown
 Harrison Brown
 Matthew Harrison Brown
 Grover Harrison Brown and Greer Harbison
