Special Announcements

PAUL HARRIS FELLOW HONOREES

Robert and Kay Moss were honored as Paul Harris Fellows, thanks to the generous contribution of recognition points by Charles and Virginia Jones and Dan Conrad. Robert and Kay are long-time community volunteers and our club is pleased to make them Paul Harris Fellows as part of our 75th anniversary celebration.

ROTARY FOUNDATION UPDATE

It's almost the end of the year - if you haven't yet made your $100 contribution to The Rotary Foundation Annual Share Fund, now is a good time to do it - you can go online if you have a User ID and Password for the Rotary International website (call Cyndi Jeffers if you need help setting that up, you just need your Foundation number to register and that is listed on the label of your Rotarian magazine) or write a check to The Rotary Foundation and give it to Cyndi at a Rotary meeting. Your contribution is tax deductible and member donations are what allows Rotary to do good all over the world!

Proposed New Member

Alan Lowe has been proposed for membership by Tracy Boatner and approved by the Board. He is the Executive Director of the American Museum of Science and Energy. Anyone having objections should submit their objections in writing in the next seven (7) days to emily.o.rice@gmail.com.

This Week's Program

Methodist Medical Center Hospitality Houses

Kimberly Maes works at Methodist Medical Center and she manages the Comprehensive Chest Clinic, Volunteer Services, Hospitality Houses and the Cancer Resource Center, as well as being the Patient Experience Advisor for the hospital. She is responsible for the development of programs, methods, and strategic initiatives aimed at ensuring quality and service excellence. Kimberly also oversees all programs and administrative functions of the Hospitality Houses, outpatient lodging, as well as fundraising for the houses.
