learn about the heritage, history, ongoing and planned activities in the city of Oak Ridge, TN. Through printed media complemented by film, presentations, tours, and a history center, he has made the history of the Y-12 National Security Complex and Oak Ridge available to all. Almost five decades of experience at Y-12 provide Ray a deep understanding and high appreciation of its unique heritage.

He is an ambassador for Y-12 to the community and has presented Y-12's historical heritage story and the history of the city of Oak Ridge to universities, civic groups, school groups, conventions, conferences, technical societies, U.S. Department of Energy (DOE) meetings in Las Vegas, NV, Los Alamos, NM, and Hanford, WA, and the public in several varied venues. Many of Ray's presentation videos are online. Ray was named the Historian for the City of Oak Ridge in December 2015.
