Last Week's Program

Ray Smith: Local Historian

Last week local historian Ray Smith shared stories from the history of Oak Ridge. Ray is a local (and now National) legend for his work in preserving the history of Y-12 and the Oak Ridge community at large. The presentation included anecdotes about how Oak Ridge was selected for the Manhattan Project, a taste of what it must have been like to work for General Leslie Groves, stories from "The Calutron Girls", and more.

This Week's Program

Melanie McGhee: Pioneering Equity in Mental Health Care, The Alliance for Integrated Awareness in Action

Melanie McGhee, L.C.S.W., is an award-winning author, teacher, and psychotherapist with extensive training in Ericksonian Hypnosis, Transactional Analysis, Redecision Therapy, Self Acceptance Training, and Energy Psychology. With more than three decades of practicing psychotherapy and studying with master therapists, she has developed a unique and effective approach to psychotherapy.

therapists, she developed AATI a.,c. In addition to training and mentoring, Melanie maintains a small private practice serving other healing arts professionals.

Since 1984, her psychotherapy practice has been devoted to serving those who journey with mood disorders along with trauma resolution. Much of her practice comprises psychotherapists and other healing arts professionals. In addition to her practice, McGhee has served on the adjunct faculties of the University of Tennessee, Maryville College, and the University of Utah.
