Homewood Chief of Police Tim Ross

Tim Ross is a Birmingham native, being born in Birmingham and growing up in the Hoover area. He graduated from Shades Valley High School in 1984 and continued his education at Samford and then UAB graduating with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

In 1988, he began his career with the Homewood Police Department where he served in many roles such as a Patrol Officer, Tactical Team Officer, and Special Operations and Motorcycle Officer.

In 2001, he was promoted to the rank of Sergeant and was tasked with the leadership of being the Tactical Team Commander as well as the Special Operations Sergeant.

In 2008, he was promoted to Lieutenant and commanded the Patrol Division, and later the Special Operations and Training Division.

In 2016, he was given the honor of being promoted to Chief of Police.

Tim is married to his wife Kristen, and they share two beautiful daughters. Ryan who is a Junior at Belmont University in Nashville, and Ally who is a Sophomore at Oak Mountain High School.

He is a member of the Church of Brook Hills in Hoover, and a member of the Jefferson County Chiefs Association, Alabama Chiefs Association, International Chiefs Association, and Metro Criminal Justice Executive Association.
