

HOMWOOD KEYNOTES

Volume 2 No. 13

January 5, 2023

This Week's Program

Glenwood. A non-profit agency dedicated to serving children, adolescents, and adults with autism and other behavioral health needs since 1974. They provide an array of over 30 comprehensive services for children as young as 18 months old up to adults in their senior years, along with their families and caregivers. Our speaker, Christy Castleberry is the Chief of Staff at Glenwood. She oversees compliance and program integrity, legal and risk management, human resources and employee training, clinical records, food service, and auxiliary. She serves as chair of the accreditation committee. Her tenure of twenty four years and seven job promotions highlights her dedication and support of Glenwood's mission. She holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from Troy State University and a master's in business management from Faulkner University. Please welcome Christy!

Celebrations in January

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Rhett McCreight	January 6
Hugh Nickson	January 26

JOINED THE CLUB

Lawrence Corley	January 15, 1982
Jennifer Kyle	January 14, 2021
Debbie Roberson	January 6, 2012
Deborah Sema	January 7, 2010
Damian Veazey	January 9, 2014

JOINED ROTARY

Kathryn Henry	January 25, 2007
---------------	------------------

Calendar

- January 12: Joint meeting with Alabama Media Professionals (AMP) on News Literacy
- January 18: Virtual Board Meeting at 8:00 a.m. All welcome
- January 27 and 28: District Mid-Year Conference at Homewood Library