Future Thinking

It is never too soon to plan.

Please email rachael@dollinsfirm.com with your thoughts and ideas for new service projects and fundraisers. We wanna know what you think, what you have seen work, and what your interests are.

Speakers*

"Allie Grace is not only special to our club for being Brandon Broadhead's daughter, she is a leader in our community. Miss Broadhead has a message to share: Keeping Kindness. Miss Teen Vestavia Hills will be speaking on her initiative towards mental health awareness and suicide prevention. Please join us next week to hear her story and how our community can be supportive."

Meesha Emmett

Meesha Emmett is a passionate mental health advocate with a love for community. A Florence, Alabama native, Meesha received her Bachelor of Arts in Public Relations from The University of Alabama. She has over 15 years of experience in the non-profit sector, working primarily in communications and fundraising. She now works as the Alabama Area Director for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention (AFSP), where she served as a volunteer for nine years. Meesha currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Community Investment Network (CIN) and the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ). She is the DEI Chair for The Junior League of Birmingham and is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.
