Steve Flowers

Steve Flowers

Steve was attracted to politics at a young age.

Beginning at age 12, Flowers served as a page in the Alabama House of Representatives. After graduating from high school, Flowers attended the University of Alabama. As a university student, Flowers served in various leadership roles, including the Student Government Association, where he served in the Student Senate.

In 1974, Flowers received a degree in political science and history from the University of Alabama.

At age 30, Flowers was elected to the Alabama House of Representatives where he served four terms.

In 2002, Flowers began writing a weekly column on Alabama politics, Inside the Statehouse. Today, his column is syndicated in 66 newspapers with a readership of approximately 450,000.

Having served 16 years in the Alabama State Legislature, Steve brings a unique perspective to Alabama politics. Steve's weekly commentary covers the state political scene each week in an entertaining and informative fashion. The weekly column also takes its readers down "Memory Lane" with Alabama's rich and colorful political history.

Steve has appeared on various television stations in Alabama and has provided political analysis for national news outlets, including CBS, ABC, PBS, MSNBC, and the BBC.<sup>[4]</sup> Stev
