Patrick Murphy, Ph.D - Goodrich Chair of Entrepreneurship at UAB's Collat School of Business

By Jon E. Lewis on Tuesday, October 4, 2022

Patrick Murphy, Ph.D

Patrick is the Goodrich Chair of Entrepreneurship, a full professor, and Director of the Entrepreneurship Program in the Collat School of Business at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. He has designed and led many entrepreneurship and technology programs in university and ecosystem settings and has trained tens of thousands of students and coached hundreds of successful entrepreneurs worldwide. A multi-award winning teacher and researcher, a range of major media outlets cite his work and he consults to many firms and universities.

Dr. Murphy is the Scholar in Residence at Innovation Depot, the largest entrepreneurial co-working/incubation center in the southeastern USA, located in downtown Birmingham, AL. In 2017, prior to moving to Alabama, he was selected as Future Founder's inaugural "Entrepreneurship Professor of the Year" across all colleges and universities in the state of Illinois. In 2016, he was named to AmericanInno's "50 on Fire" for his impact on Chicago's entrepreneurial ecosystem.

Professor Murphy is Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Small Business and Enterprise Development. He served previously as Editor-in-Chief of Management Decision and as Chair of the Academy of Management's MH Division. He has published extensively in leading journals and outlets including Harvard Business Review, Entrepreneurship Theory and Practice, Academy of Management Perspectives, Journal of Small Business Management, and Entrepreneurship and Regional Development. He authored the book Mutiny and Its Bounty, published in 2013 by Yale University Press.

His 2009 paper, "A model of social entrepreneurial discovery," was ranked by the Journal of Business Ethics in 2021 as #6 in the top 100 most influential articles in the social entrepreneurship field. His 2006 paper, "A conceptual history of entrepreneurial thought," was named by Emerald Publishers in 2017 as one of the publisher's 50 highest-impact papers in the last half-century.

A former President of the Board of Directors of the Chicago Cultural Alliance, Professor Murphy lived in Beijing, China in the 1990s and speaks Mandarin Chinese. A veteran of the US Navy, he is also a thoroughbred racehorse owner and is active in racing, aftercare, and racehorse retirement.
