I'm Looking Over a Four Leaf Clover

I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover,
That I over looked before:
One leaf is sunshine,
The second is rain,
Third is the roses that grow in the lane.
No need explaining the one
Remaining is somebody I adore.
I'm Looking Over A Four Leaf Clover
That I over looked before.

Speaker, Friday, March 8th: Nora Paine, The Penguin Project

By Craig DiCecco

Nora Paine, originally from North Carolina, discovered the world of theatre in college at Erskine College, in Due West, SC. Over her four years there, she stage managed and technically directed 16 productions. She also directed two productions and minored in theatre. After graduating from Loyola College of Maryland with a Masters of Education, Nora came to Tampa and joined New Tampa Players in 2008. In the past ten years, she has participated in over 25 New Tampa Players' productions, including Mary Poppins, Beauty and the Beast, Jesus Christ Superstar, and Annie, twice. She served on New Tampa Players' Board of Directors as Director of Production for 6 years and is now President of New Tampa Players. Through her experience, not only in theatre, but also as a Montessori teacher and a mother of special needs children, Nora is eager to create a successful, accepting environment for our young artists and peer mentors to grow and shine.

Presentation Description:

Founded in 2002, New Tampa Players is your local 501c3 community theater. Over the past 17 years, we have produced over 40 large scale musicals with multi-generational casts. This season, we are bringing a new program to Tampa called the Penguin Project.

The Penguin Project is a theater program for children with special needs. Each child with special needs is matched with a peer mentor who works with the young artist through the whole production process. The Penguin Project is a wonderful experience for our young artists, peer mentors, and their families.
