Ladies and Gentlemen –

A lot is going on in Honduras - see the attached letter and invitation for us to attend the June 30 installation of the new Ulúa Rotary Club in El Progreso (the Ulúa River is nearby). The new President will be our long time project coordinator, Melvin Tejada, an Honorary Member of our club. There are other Rotarians from the El Progreso Rotary club who we know well and who will transition to be charter members of the Ulúa Club, such as Victor Soto (the Secretary), Jorge Handal (the Treasurer), Lorena (Melvin's wife), and doctors Orlando Hall and Ricardo Chinchilla (the present President of the El Progreso RC). Even Alexander Lopez, the Mayor of El Progreso will be a charter member.

So here's an open invitation for a quick trip – really quick: fly down Friday, June 30 (the installation is that evening), a full day on Saturday (see the fire station water tower construction and maybe the Tela school?) and return flight on Sunday. Zip – Pop – Snap, and we're back home from a lightning trip. Your cost is $350 (most or all of your plane ticket) and room, board and travel expense is included. Can't beat the expense.
