SHELBIA L. JACKSON
DIRECTOR DEKALB ENTERTAINMENT COMMISSION

SHELBIA L. JACKSON

Shelbia Jackson currently is the Director managing DeKalb County's TV/Film, Music and Digital Entertainment Office also known as the DeKalb Entertainment Commission, which is the primary driving force attracting and expanding businesses supporting the film, television, music and digital entertainment industry in DeKalb County. She is responsible for the coordination of all TV/Film projects produced in unincorporated DeKalb County as well as the facilitation of film permits from its 13 cities and unique communities. She also oversees the implementation of the DeKalb Entertainment Strategic Plan that outlines the collaborative, supportive infrastructure stimulating the growth and success of creative ventures in film, television, music and digital entertainment.

Shelbia has helped facilitate the production of more than 500 film projects in DeKalb County. A few of these critically acclaimed projects include: Bad Boys 3, Waldo, The Passage, MacGyver, The Mule, Teenage Bounty Hunters, Green Leaf, Black Lightning, Love Craft Country, Ozark, Star Girl, Dynasty, Legacies, Stranger Things, Lodge 49 and American Soul.

She collaborates with strategic partners such as the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office, the Association of Film Commissioners International, Atlanta Film Society, the ten entertainment organizations that comprise the DeKalb Entertainment Commission as well as other county, regional, state, and national partners including DeKalb's four major soundstudios. Combined, these studios offer 13+ soundstages and 740,000 square feet of production space. Shelbia also participates in public speaking engagements, entertainment marketing expos, and industry events that promote DeKalb County as a "camera-ready" community.

Wedding Anniversaries

Harry Strack
June 24th

Next Friday June 24th the Episcopal Church of The Holy Cross in Stone Mountain will be distributing fruits and vegetables to residents of Stone Mountain between 3.00 PM and 5.00 PM. They need help in unloading boxes and handing out food items to the public. We could be of assistance to this worthy cause. Please join us there if you can. They are just up the road from the main western gate to the Park. Rotary has lots of friends and supporters at this church.
