April Rooks, Founder and Chair, AmpedKids

By Lindsay Allison on Sunday, May 19, 2019

April Rooks is a singer/songwriter, entertainer, entrepreneur and author of the book, Only Love Can Do That, to be published in 2019. She is the owner of April Rooks Entertainment providing live music entertainment for weddings, private events and leading worship retreats. As a vocal and piano instructor for twenty five years, April has helped children and adults enhance their talents and build self-confidence.

In 2018, April founded the Amped Kids Foundation with a vision for enriching the lives of foster children in North Georgia through private music instruction and band scholarship programs. April has a heart for her community serving organizations such as United Way, CASA, The Georgia Mountain Food Bank, Good News at Noon and Chairing the 2014 Walk to End Alzheimer's.

As a native of Gainesville, Georgia, April enjoys a variety of outdoor activities including spending time on Lake Lanier, hiking and camping with her husband and two children.

Job Well Done by Rotary Spellers!

By Lindsay Allison on Sunday, May 19, 2019

Rotary Rogues teammates Kathleen Owen, Martha Zoller and Kay Blackstock did a fantastic job representing the Rotary Club of Gainesville at the Alliance for Literacy's Great Grown-Up Spelling Bee last week and received fourth place! Thank you to our Rotary spellers for their participation!
