Hall-Dawson CASA: Serving our Community's Most Vulnerable Kids

Joy Green serves as Development Specialist at Hall-Dawson CASA. Joy collaborates with CASA Board of Directors and community partners, with a strategic focus on resource development. In her role, Joy works to elevate the visibility of the organization and educate the community about the needs at CASA. Joy has experience in fundraising, special events management, and community engagement over the past 20 years in our community.

Joy and her husband Mark have lived in Gainesville for 25 years. Mark serves as Minister of Music at First Baptist Church. They have a daughter, Lucy, who is married to Justin Heydt (pronounced height). They live in Tuscaloosa, AL, where Justin attends the University of Alabama School of Law. They are expecting a baby boy in April. Mark and Joy have a son, Herve, (pronounced her-vee) who is a CPA. Joy and Mark enjoy hiking in the beautiful northeast Georgia mountains, spending time on Lake Lanier, college football, gardening, and their two fur babies, Lynn and Ladybug.
