Tuesday, September 20th, Dr. Jason Branch, Superintendent of Oconee County Schools

By Dean Bright on Saturday, September 17, 2022

Dr. Jason L. Branch began his first day with Oconee County Schools on June 1, 2012. He brings a variety of experiences to the superintendent's position. Dr. Branch has worked in five Georgia school systems as a teacher, coach, assistant principal, athletic director, and superintendent. In addition, he sits on the Georgia School Superintendents Association (GSSA) Board of Directors, is a 2017 graduate of the prestigious Leadership Georgia program, and was appointed to Board of Trustees for Teachers Retirement System of Georgia (TRS) by Governor Nathan Deal in 2018. He received the prestigious Bill Barr Leadership Award from the Georgia School Superintendents Association in 2019; and in 2020 was named Chair of the Governor's Superintendent Advisory Council, a group of fifteen superintendents from around Georgia that provide educational policy guidance to Governor Brian Kemp. Dr. Branch has presented at the state, local, and national levels in the areas of leadership development, technology, and curriculum. He holds a bachelor's degree and a master's degree, both in English education, from the University of Georgia, as well as specialist and doctoral degrees in educational leadership from the University of Southern Mississippi. Dr. Branch and his wife, Catherine, are the proud parents of two children, Abby and Jake.

14th Annual Car Show Saturday, September 24th, Everyone's Help Is Needed

By Dean Bright on Saturday, September 3, 2022

The car show team is doing an incredible job organizing the event, but they need our help volunteering to staff it on Saturday, September 24th at Veterans Park. There are many different types of volunteer opportunities at different time slots throughout the day.

Goodie Bag Items Are Needed For The Car Show

By Dean Bright on Saturday, September 17, 2022

Right now we stand at two ink pens for the goodie bags for those that enter a vehicle in the show. Thanks to Dr. Dana Hogan and South Carriage Homes for the donation. We need several more items from our members and you can drop them off at my office or bring them to the meeting on Tuesday. Please bring to Marion on Tuesday or contact him directly.
