Tuesday, July 23rd, 2024 - Anne Hopkins, Connect Ministries

A native of South Carolina, Anne Hopkins graduated from the College of Charleston and then moved to Atlanta. After beginning her career in tradeshow logistics, she slowly realized she wanted to have a more active impact on the world. Anne has worked for corporate non-profits, was a political fundraiser for several campaigns, and has worked in development in higher education and independent institutions. As the first Director of Advancement at Connect Ministries, Anne focuses on donor relations and fundraising efforts to help provide resources in order to enhance the mission of Connect Ministries: "To Help the Church Meet New People." Anne serves on several committees and boards in the community and has a strong belief system in servant leadership.

Anne and her husband, Hunter - a native of Georgia, moved here with their family in 2020, after yearning for the "small town" feel that they both grew up with. They have (3) 2-legged children, Harrison, Millie and Mary Gardner and (1) 4-legged child, Dottie. They live in Oconee County and enjoy being in a small community!
