Steve Lamb is the current Assistant Deputy Chief Appraiser for the Forsyth County Tax Assessors office. His duties are to supervise all of the real estate employees and ensure placement of property on the digest is at fair market value. Steve works under the Board of Tax Assessors with the commercial and residential appraisers.

Before serving the public with Forsyth County, Steve held an electric contractor license from 2001 to 2009 and ran a crew of electricians. He also worked for The Blacks Mills Group, a reevaluation company for counties that failed to meet the state law requirements. He would go into a struggling assessors office and retrain the staff, implement software and hardware, hold public hearings, and adjust the appraisal model to match the current market.

Steve has completed 445 hours of education with the Georgia Department of Revenue. He currently holds and Appraiser III certificate. He is also trained in Preliminary Damage Assessment-Individual Assistance and Public Assistance.

Away from work, he and his wife along with his two daughters Carly and Calleigh can usually be found at any Silver City Baptist service or function. They also enjoy the ball parks and basketball courts where the girls play. Camping and Golf round off the rest of the family hobbies.
