Victorious Family Terence L. Chatmon

For the past decade, Terence Chatmon, President & CEO of Victorious Family, a family discipleship ministry, has been equipping and empowering Family Champions who make mature and thriving followers of Christ. Victorious Family is strategically positioning itself on five continents to reach millions of families with its step-by-step family discipleship process model.

He has authored a must-read 5-Star-Bestselling book titled, Do Your Children Believe? Inside this book, author Terence Chatmon offers his proven step-by-step process to create a personalized family discipleship plan that works for families, even those who have grown children. He shares the successes of thousands of workshop participants and stories of how he, his wife, and his children put their plan into living action with remarkable blessings in tow. Do Your Children Believe? Appears at a time when a similar moment in history doesn't sound so incredibly far-fetched: "There arose another generation after them who did not know the Lord or the work that he had done" (Judges 2:10 ESV).

Chatmon has served in senior executive leadership positions for Fortune 500 companies namely Johnson & Johnson, Citibank, and The Coca-Cola Company. He has been recognized as a transformational leader amongst senior executives and CEOs. A Chicago native and graduate of the University of Illinois, Champaign/Urbana. Terence is the founder and CEO of Do Your Children Believe, Inc aka Victorious Family, a non-profit organization called to expand the Kingdom through the marketplace and family.

He is available as a plenary speaker and regularly teaches seminars, workshops, and forums where church and/or marketplace leaders attend from around the world. More can be found on Victorious Family and Chatmon at www.victoriousfamily.org

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- 1ST The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- 2ND High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- 3RD The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- 4TH The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

The Five Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill & better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
5. Is it fun?
