

The Future of Rotary is Here!

NEWS FOR JUNE 11, 2018

OUR MOST RECENT MEETING

Lee Baker is president of the Georgia chapter of AARP. Lee gave us a primer on the history of AARP. Its founder began advocating for retirees when she learned of a retired teacher who had to live in a chicken coop. AARP is issue-oriented. They lobby on behalf of issues that affect seniors, but they have no political affiliations and do not endorse any politicians.

STOCK THE SHELVES WITH SMILES

We're in competition with Kiwanis and other Gwinnett Rotary Clubs to see who can donate the most items to the Southeast Gwinnett Co-op. All you have to do is bring your items to a meeting and let Carol Terry know what you brought. The contest ends July 15th.

MEMORIAL DAY PICNIC

We were supposed to gather at Tribble Mill Park for our picnic, but rain laid that plan to waste. Luckily, we were able to move to the parish hall at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in Snellville. Even though we couldn't enjoy a lake or have outdoor activities, the food was just as good, and we got to enjoy a day of fellowship in dry, air-conditioned comfort. It was also a good test-run to see how the facility worked as a meeting place for our club. It works!

A ROTARIAN'S STORY

Swetha Gupta has two passions – service and travel. She gets to fulfill her passion for service both in Rotary and in her paying job with Junior Achievement. Her passion for travel started at a young age. She had lived in India, South Carolina, and New York before she could vote. She has also lived in San Francisco and travelled to Angola, Brazil, and just last week to Greece.
