

The Future of Rotary is Here!

NEWS FOR SEPTEMBER 17, 2018

OUR MOST RECENT MEETING

Shawn Lesko works by day as a vice-president for a landscape maintenance, company, but his passion is missionary work, specifically in the village of Ndibai, Kenya. Shawn is part of the First Men's Ministry Team. They work directly with men in the Ndibai community with relationship building, as well as construction projects at local churches.

Shawn has made several trips to Ndibai and will be leaving for his latest in October. Our club passed the hat and raised enough to get him fully funded for his upcoming trip. Best wishes for a successful trip, Shawn!

A ROTARIAN'S STORY

Tina Miller knew from a young age that she wanted to serve and to serve in a uniform. Her first opportunity came in the U.S. Army, where Tina spent most of her service time as an MP. Being part of the military police made the next move to the Atlanta Police Department a natural. Tina loved being a patrol cop, working the Little Five Points neighborhood where she grew up. As a detective, she worked about every job there is, from missing persons to homicide. Tina retired as a lieutenant with the APD, and now spends much of her time touring the nation's ballparks with Carol Terry and tending to her ever-growing family of dogs... and a tortoise.
