TODAY’S SPEAKER

Donna Drummond
 Marketing Development Coordinator for Robins Financial Credit Union

As Market Development Coordinator for Robins Financial Credit Union, Donna is responsible for coordinating and managing the business development function of the Credit Union in support of its overall marketing strategies and operations. This entails developing and maintaining relationships with businesses and groups within the Credit Union’s charter area, providing and presenting financial education to local schools and organizations, and participating in and representing the credit union in community activities and special events.

Donna has resided in Warner Robins and the Middle Georgia area since 1989, when she graduated from Mercer University with a degree in Marketing and Merchandising.
