Perry Page Turners is a nonprofit dedicated to the promotion of education and literacy in the middle Georgia area. Formed in April of 2023 by 5 friends hoping to connect readers and writers, the group hosted its first free book festival with 40 authors and 200+ attendees in January 2024. In addition to the second annual Turning A New Page Book Festival scheduled for January 25, 2025, the group is actively working with organizations to emphasize the importance of reading. Perry Page Turners hosts a senior adult book club at the senior center at Rozer Park, and is working to bring authors to middle and elementary schools and homeschool groups. Other planned book outreach projects include contributing to local Little Free Libraries and a book corner at the Veterans clinic.

Board members Ruth Tarpley and Beckie Burnham are here to today.
