Walon Smith joined the Rotary Club of Centerville in 2010. He served one year as Club President and currently leads its reading program called Read United at Centerville Elementary School.

Walon grew up on a farm in Wheeler County GA and has a degree in Agricultural Engineering from the University of Georgia where he met his wife, Karen. They have two married daughters and four grandchildren.

He’s been an insurance agent in Warner Robins for 32 years and owns an independent agency named HM Advisors.

Walon is a Georgia football fanatic and a really bad golfer.

His passion is teaching 3rd graders how to read and he’s here today to tell you why that matters.
