Julie Warner has been studying the stock market and analyzing stock since 1984 when she joined an investment club and became a member of the National Association of Investors Corporation, also known as BetterInvesting. Her passion is educating women on how to invest in the stock market.

Over the years, she has started over 30 investment clubs in Georgia and continues to mentor 5 in the local area, several of which have portfolios over $500,000.

Julie was elected to the National Association of Investors Corporation Board of Directors 2007 and served 12 years.

She has appeared regularly on CNBC as a participant of their Retail Investor Panel. A highlight was when she debated a retail analyst on the stock of Tiffany & Co. Julie is a frequent guest on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange.

Julie has a degree in Mathematics from the University of Guam, has traveled the world with her military husband, and is an avid fan of motorcycle racing.
