Kevin Smith is a dedicated and accomplished high school football coach, currently serving as the Head Coach and Chief of Athletics at the Panther Program. The 2024 season marks his eighth year leading the Panthers and his 31st year coaching high school football. Under his leadership, the Panthers have achieved an impressive overall record of 61-26. Notably, Coach Smith has guided the team to three region championships and led them to their first state championship victory in school history in 2023. A native of LaGrange, Kevin graduated from LaGrange High School in 1988. He pursued higher education at Jacksonville State University, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Physical Education in 1994. Committed to furthering his expertise, he completed a masters degree in physical education from the University of Alabama in 2004. In addition, Kevin earned a specialist degree in Leadership from Lincoln Memorial University in 2009. Kevin is married to Monica, and together they have three children: Sarah, Morgan, and Steele. His passion for football and dedication to fostering a positive team culture have made a lasting impact on the Panther Program and its players.
