Announcements

Kendall is a Marine veteran having served for over seven years on active duty. After his time as a Military Working Dog Handler, Kendall spent the remainder of his five years as a Marine Criminal Investigator. After returning home and serving as an assistant district attorney in Cordele, Kendall began his work with the Houston County DA’s Office in April of 2020. On September 1, 2021, after a surprise mid-term retirement from former District Attorney George Hartwig, Chief Assistant District Attorney William Kendall became Houston County Acting District Attorney. Houston County District Attorney William Kendall was officially sworn in on June 13, 2022

As the District Attorney, he has fully staffed the Office, rebuilt communications between law enforcement and community service providers, made a record attack against case backlog, and increased our engagement and ability to serve the Victims of Houston County.
