TODAY'S SPEAKER

Jarrett Arrington, Postal Inspector U.S. Postal Inspection Service

Postal Inspector Jarrett Arrington brings over 18 years of dedicated service with the U.S. Postal Inspection Service to his role. With a solid foundation gained from 8 years as a police officer with the Atlanta Police Department, he has seamlessly transitioned to his current position as a seasoned investigator and safeguarder of postal security.

As an experienced inspector, Jarrett specializes in investigating a wide range of postal- related crimes, including workplace violence incidents, mail fraud, and mail theft. His expertise extends to handling dangerous mail incidents involving narcotics, bombs, and hazardous substances. Within his current reporting area, he tackles the pressing issue of mail theft from collection boxes and curbside mailboxes, a concern that directly impacts identity theft matters.

Whether he is addressing strategies to protect personal information from the clutches of mail thieves or shedding light on drug-related incidents within the postal system, Jarrett's insights are invaluable. His ability to convey complex subjects in an accessible manner empowers individuals and communities to stay vigilant and informed.

With a wealth of experience and a commitment to safeguarding the integrity of the postal system, Jarrett Arrington serves as a trusted authority and advocate for secure mail practices.
