Paul Harris Fellow Matching Campaign

Have you been thinking about getting your first or next Paul Harris Fellow?

From now until December 31 (which is getting close), Club Members who make a gift of up to $500 to The Rotary Foundation will have their gift matched with points to help them achieve their first or next level Paul Harris Fellow.

Katheryne Fields, GRSP Program Director

Katheryne Fields serves as the Program Director for Georgia Rotary Student Program, a critical position that was identified by GRSP's strategic plan. She previously served as the Marketing and Development Director for GRSP. Katheryne brings more than 20 years of communications, management and nonprofit experience to her role. She works closely with the GRSP Chair, officers, directors, trustees, staff, GRSP Foundation as well as Georgia Rotary Clubs and GRSP students promoting the cause of world peace through higher education by assisting students, speaking to clubs plus raising funds and awareness for the organization. Katheryne is a member and President for 23-24 for Daybreak Griffin Rotary Club in Griffin, where she and her husband Dale, an avid golfer, reside.

Crab Race Will Benefit Local Projects

The Rotary Club of Savannah South will host a Crab Race on Saturday, Feb. 17, 2024 at Coaches Corner. The event will raise funds to benefit P.A.C.K. - fighting child hunger, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards, and other community projects to improve lives. Get involved today! Download the flyer for more details.

Our fundraising will benefit our local charities: (PACK Savannah, YMCA for the Sarah Birch Angel Tree, RYLA - Rotary Youth Leadership Award and the Sam Eskew Fund: which will go toward funding our GRSP Student)
