Here's a Way to Help Raise $ for the Foundation

By Anne M. Cordeiro

As I write this early Saturday morning, we are now down to the final four in the NFL playoffs and we have 59 squares still remaining in our Super Bowl Square Raffle to benefit The Rotary Foundation. Not coming to meetings, but you want a square. We can help!

No cash at meetings. No problem. We can help!

Here's the deal.

Regardless of who plays in the Super Bowl, buy a square, or a few, and you could get your first or your next Paul Harris Fellow. BUT, you must enter the contest to win ... squares are $10 each, and the process is completely random until all 100 squares are drawn.

This year, Max Greenberg has taken us to an online format. You can select your square online or reach out to Max at mgreenberg@altruus.us and tell him how many squares you want. Numbers for the squares will be drawn randomly for the rows and columns and when they are your numbers will become known. Doyle Kelley will bill your account for the # of squares you want or you may bring cash/check to a club meeting.

All funds raised will benefit The Rotary Foundation, which does amazing projects in our community and around the globe. Special thanks to Jazmine Spicer and Maliece Whatley for helping with this.

Fun and Good Deed with Savannah Wine Cellar Social

Club Members had a good time at the gathering on January 17 at the Savannah Wine Cellar. Rotarian Julie Brawn had a spread of food for all to enjoy. Lisa Birch brought Britannia Samuels, our GRSP student from last year, who is attending school at GSU's Armstrong Campus.

Following the gathering, the left over food was delivered to the Savannah Fire Department Stations #2 and #11. You know they were happy to see fresh chicken tenders, plus meats, fruit and cheese.

It has been suggested that one of our future off-site gatherings, feature beer - instead of wine (or maybe both!). If you are up for organizing such a gathering in April or May, please let Chad Reese know. Ideally, the gathering would be during a week we are not meeting at Carey Hilliard's.

Students Seeking Ride for Leadership Weekend

By Anne M. Cordeiro

Last week, I shared via email that our three area Georgia Rotary Students, including Magnus, are looking for a ride to and from the GRSP (Georgia Rotary Student Program) Leadership Weekend from February 10 to February 12 in Dunwoody. Thank you for the responses received. If you can help take them and bring them home, please contact Lisa Birch at 912-663-6888 or lisawbirch@gmail.com.

Executive Director of CART Will Speak at District Conference

Tiffany Ervan, the executive director of the CART fund, is one of the speakers at The Rotary District Conference, April 27 to April 30, at Callaway Gardens. CART or Coins for Alzheimer's Research Trust is the origin of the blue buckets that sit on our tables each week.

To see a video clip of her and to learn more about CART go to <https://youtu.be/u1VS-B8uZGE>

She is one of six presenters scheduled for the District Conference. Come celebrate our shared values and achievements this year and take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to relax and reconnect with fellow Rotarians. You can register for the conference and learn more at www.dreambigservebig.org.
