“Kate Templeton, a Savannah native, is a 2022 graduate of The University of Georgia where she obtained her Master of Public Health degree. Her undergraduate degree, also from The University of Georgia, was a B.S. in Health Promotion and Behavior with minors in Spanish and Music (Voice).”

In the past, Kate has interned with multiple organizations in the Athens, Georgia area such as Unified Healthcare for the Rural Underserved and Live Forward (formerly AIDS Athens). Kate has a passion for health education and loves working with children.

Outside of work, Kate serves as a Community Investments Volunteer on the Youth Development Panel for United Way and is a member of United Way Young Leaders. Kate is also involved in The Savannah Children's Theatre, is a Certified Professional Coach through the International Association of Professional Recovery Coaches and is a mentor for students in the UGA Mentor Program. “
