Rotary News for October 20, 2022

By David Shoaf on Thursday, October 20, 2022

Rotary Battles Polio

World Polio Day this week is a rededication of the effort to remove polio from the planet. Begun in 1985, today we continue the battle in Afghanistan and Pakistan where 22 cases have been reported this year. The cases in NY have remained confined to a small area and vaccination efforts are continuing.

President Beth announced that dues are due for the final quarter of 2022. Check your recent email for a copy of your bill.

Dave Geller is progressing after his back surgery and we look forward to seeing him again! Thanks to Tom for stepping in to assume the treasurer duties.

Dictionaries Project update

Jason and his team delivered Rotary Dictionaries to Palm City Elementary this past week. Dr. Davis is one of the famous alumni of the school!

A Little Love for Lahia.

President Beth announced a new program to recycle our Publix, Aldi and Walmart plastic bags by sharing them with the clients at Lahia. They need the bags to take out food, toiletries, etc. when they leave. Thanks to all who brought bags on Thursday, Beth will deliver them each week, so keep them coming!

Holiday Help for United Way

Rotary members will be helping distribute turkeys and trimmings on Dec. 14th and 15th at the Fairgrounds. There will be 3 shifts. Please sign up with Sue next week.

Youth Exchange Rotary has been reactivated following the Pandemic. Tom and Sue hosted Julia from Brazil a few years ago and she is still an annual contributor to our club's history. Hap and Jane have hosted 5 students over the years and have found it a great way to spread knowledge of Rotary and meet potential leaders from all over the world.

Happy and Sad

Sue and John collected bucks for the club once again! Lots of college and pro teams were recognized!

Rick Zurich announced the Rockwell Exhibit will open Nov 4th at the Elliott.

Linda Weiksar is promoting the Walk A Mile fundraiser on Nov 11th at the airshow at 10 a.m.

John F, Dave S. and Dr. Rex toured the north to admire the fall colors.

Nils reported that the Northport area of FL was flooded and over 1800 trailer homes were destroyed. Friends were stranded in their homes for 9 days before being rescued.

211 Help Line

By David Shoaf on Thursday, October 20, 2022

Gene introduced Chad Adcock of the Treasure Coast Helpline. The organization provides a variety of services for our residents. Simply call 211 to find out about and get connected to all kinds of services:

Basic human needs help, which range from food, clothing, to emergency shelter.

Physical and mental health, including victim services, mental health counseling, Medicare and other support groups.

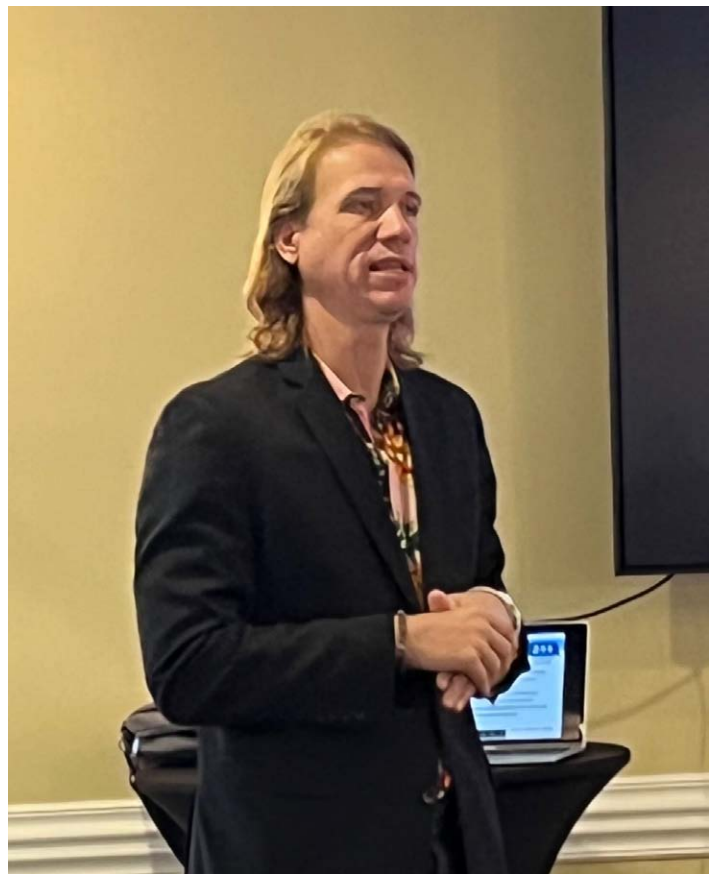

Employment related services including resume assistance, job training and daycare.

Children and family links to tutoring and childcare advocacy.

Older adult services include home delivered meals, daily wellness checks, senior centers, volunteer opportunities, transportation and more.

Trained resource specialists are available to listen to assess your needs, help you find answers to your questions and provide you with options. The free, confidential service is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Call 211 or www.211treasurecoast.org.

50-50 for October 20

The 50-50 was won by Hap Mills. Congratulations!
