Rotary News for October 27, 2022

By David Shoaf on Thursday, October 27, 2022

Pledge and Prayer were offered by President Beth.

Announcements

Nils, Tom and Beth and Jane and Hap attended the district 6930 conference last weekend. Hap was congratulated on his 42 years of Rotary Service in a special presentation at the event. Thanks, Hap, for all you do!

The next Board meeting is Nov. 10th following our regular club meeting.

Toys for Tots collection will begin in November at club meetings. Bring your new unwrapped toys to share with local kids.

Dictionaries were delivered to Seawinds and Citrus Grove. Thanks to the hardworking volunteers who have been inspired by the 3rd graders and their reactions to their dictionaries!

Next Week

11.3 Christmas tree setup at the Fairgrounds following our meeting.

11.5 Mapp Road Cleanup at 8 a.m. Park at Holy Redeemer.

Guests were former member Sue Shirley, John Arthur from Coral Gables and Fred Strauss from Jupiter. Heather Long and Kia Fontaine joined us from the Lyric Theatre!

Happy and Sad

John Fedorek announced a birthday check will be delivered next week for our local Foundation. Tom W. hosted 150 of his closest friends at Willis Yachts the other day. Kids and grandkids are arriving as a chill hits the northeast. HB took a great trip through the Carolinas to see the leaves and enjoy the cooler weather. Talk of the upcoming basketball season from our Dook alumni. Sue W. and guest Sue Shirley reminisced about wearing pajamas to see the Pajama Game! Lots of happy bucks for being on the Treasure Coast and enjoying the weather this fall.

The Lyric Theater

By David Shoaf on Thursday, October 27, 2022

The recent pandemic hit many local entertainment venues but the Lyric is back and better than ever! The Lyric opened in 1926 as a vaudeville and silent movie theatre. Kia Fontaine, Executive Director of the Lyric, was introduced by Linda W. a member of our club and a Director of the Lyric.

Kia announced an outstanding list of professional entertainers who are appearing this winter at the facility. From blues and jazz, divas and dance, comedy and family fun, it is all here! November includes the Grammy award-winning Steep

Canyon Rangers, Comedian Steven Wright and New Orleans' own Wolfman Washington. Herb Alpert and Mindi Abair bring their Christmas productions to the 500 seat Lyric. It is like hosting a group in your own living room!

The Arts and Education programs are back in full swing. The Discovery Series for Young Audiences provides arts programming to Treasure Coast students, according to Kia.
