Happy and Sad

Sue and John collected funds from members for various accomplishments including: Nils filling us in on District events, Michael building a fence with 2 friends, Ken's daughter and son-in-law are buying their first home in Raleigh, Gene was amazed at all the old friends at a memorial service, Chris has recruited Cray-Buchanan to help him close on his Dairy Queen purchase, Beth attended the Interact Club Meeting at Clark, Tom W had an 'atta girl' for Sue beating a much younger team in Tennis doubles, Tom W also has a big yacht to sell, Madigans sent a great picture of son Nicholas 2 months old!

We got a Thank You note from United Way for our work at the Christmas toy/food distribution event.

Rotarians, Start your Engines!

Daytona is the place to be on 18th and 19th of February.

Dave Geller has donated a pair of tickets for the 2 day extravaganza and the club is auctioning them off. The seats are located on the first turn and include infield passes, parking and the Concert with Luke Combs.

The value is $780 and 20 years is the wait list for this location.

You can bid on it at the Fundraiser at Buttonwood at the tennis tournament, or contact Dave Geller, through February 10.

Vocational Service

By David Shoaf on Thursday, February 2, 2023

Vocational Service is one of the joys of Rotary Service. We have a diverse body of experience within our membership. Linda Weiksnar is our Vocational Service Chair and she created a game that made us aware of the variety of professions we have in our club. We include Educators, Entrepreneurs, Lawyers, Photographers, Doctors, Veterinarian, Lawyers, CPAs and Travel Agents for a few.

Linda spoke of her college experience at Dook, a small college in the Carolinas. She honed her leadership skills there and served in several important roles as Greek President, sports enthusiast and as a cheerleader in the "No Spit Zone" at basketball games. Today she practices domestic law in Stuart.

Retirees may have had several titles in their career. David Shoaf was labelled informally as a "gadfly. A gadfly is defined as " An annoying person, especially one who provokes others into action by criticism". Dave commented that an early gadfly was Socrates, who challenged people in power, the status quo or a popular position. He continues that role today through his sarcasm and wit.

His real love is the local community, and the role Rotarians can play in improving it. Be a gadfly!

50-50 February 2

The 50-50 was won by Nils Weibull.
