Reporting on the Meeting of August 3, 2022, at the Eau Gallie Yacht Club

Member Carl Miller, wearing his Marine dress uniform, greeted members and guests. Salute! Visiting Rotarian Chris Wenn from the Cocoa Club, and Evelyn Barnes, a guest of Steve Spragins were introduced.

Followings the usual ceremonies, President Susan Frey opened the meeting informing attendees that "August is HAPPINESS HAPPENS Month. Remember, Happiness is a choice!

Yikes! Today is also "National Grab Some Nuts Day." All that to promote walnuts, pecans and other healthy delights.

Board Meeting (August 2) highlights: Donated $1,500 to St. Stephens Way (supporting the October 4 fund raiser), and donated $333.34 to the Eastern Florida State College Scholarship fund (to complete our donation of $1,000 to grant another scholarship).

ENGAGEMENT is an area of focus for all clubs linked to increasing membership, retaining members, and being involved in Service Projects. The annual BUDGET is being developed. Being a Rotarian is more than attending meetings.

Meeting Place Relocation Study for 2023 Due to the EGYC closing in 2023 for major renovations. Study is focusing on the Kiwi Club, Pineapple House, and Hilton Rialto.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE is set for October 21-23 at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Indialantic. Registration materials have been sent to all members using their email address. Check the details.

GUATEMALA PROJECT for the Ak'Tenamit School continues with a planned visit next February or March. Susan and Dan Frey plan to make the trip.

Sergeant at Arms Trina Downey gathered happy, sad, and information dollars. Pat Bouchard won the 50/50 raffle but left the Queen of Hearts in a very small deck.

PROGRAM Tonya Cherry, Executive Director of Operations for the Eastern Florida State College Foundation shared how the foundation generates funds and how they are used to support scholarships, programs, and other projects. This valued community resource now meets the needs of over 20,000 students each year.

Dr. Michael A. Cadore Sr., Executive Director of Community Engagement for External Affairs at EFSC shared how the campuses provide a wide range of career, specialty, and degree programs. Combining a diversified, inclusive, and challenged student body with a talented and dedicated faculty enriches the learning experience. His closing message: "If you don't serve your community now, don't expect it to serve you later."
