Last Week's Meeting: President Susan Frey opened the meeting with this question. Who has the best fried chicken in the area. Consensus of Club members - Publix.

Retiring President Jay Anderson summed up the Club's participation/commitment this past year as well as thanked all Club Members for their service work which had allowed the Club to make a difference in our community. He stated many lives had been positively affected. He presented a beautiful gift (a cheese board) to each of the board members serving with him this past year, as well as to Henry Perez and Sandie Layton

President Susan Frey thanked Jay for "stepping" up to serve again in the role of President.

The new Board and its officers/directors were officially installed for this next fiscal year.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Jock Walker gave a brief update on the 4th of July Sing-A-Long that many Club members participated in at the Brookshire Nursing Home. 10 Rotarians came to sing along with 20-25 residents. All enjoyed their time together.

Dwan Buie is having health issues and will not be able to attend meetings until they are resolved.

Secretary Matt Margut reminded us that Rotary International is focused on tracking club "engagement" - we are looking at exactly what this means and what information we need to provide. He asked that while we look into this, PLEASE keep track of Rotary Club of Indialantic initiatives you are working on and the hours you are spending.

Welcome to our newest member Audrey Daigler (Pat Bouchard sponsor)

Volunteer Opportunities:

Treasurer in 2023 - We need a future Treasurer to take over for Dan Frey in June 2023.

We need greeters to sign up

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Charity - Jock Walker announced that from our Rotary Club efforts this past year, $63,000 was contributed to national and local charities.

Sergeant of Arms: Thank you Trina! Fun as always!

50-50 Cash Raffle: Jean Cacciatore won

SPEAKER The Club engaged in an exercise entitled “THE GOOD, THE BAD, and THE UGLY”:

President Susan Frey led the club through an exercise asking for all Members present to list, on individual pieces of sticky note paper, the items they actually love that our Club does or is involved in and want to have continue; to list what you might want to see changed or tweaked to make the Club better and more attractive to the Members and prospective members; and to list what you are disappointed or hate and want to see stopped or entirely changed within the Club meetings and/or structure. She added a “New” category and asked for ideas. She asked the Members to place their stickies on an individual sheet of paper labeled with each of the four titles, “Good, Bad, Ugly and New.” When the exercise completed, it was noted that the “New” board held more stickies than the other three. Very encouraging.

In summation, Susan will combine the ideas and comments, then send out to all members. It is her intent to bring the completed work to the board for review and consensus on what direction the Club should take on each of the issues raised - where we are going.

She also plans to provide a box at each meeting in order for this exercise to continue with Member suggestions and comments. She asked that if you don’t feel comfortable leaving a note in the box, to please email her.

NEXT MEETING: July 13, Eau Gallie Yacht Club
