Delray Beach
Downtown
Development Authority

Established in 1971, the Delray Beach Downtown Development Authority (DDA) is a dependent taxing authority within the City of Delray Beach. The DDA is funded by a special tax levy on property within its district boundaries and its mission is to grow, strengthen and enhance the economic vitality of Downtown Delray Beach and is The authority is governed by a 7-member board of directors, which includes downtown property owners, business owners, and/or residents. The board sets policy that is implemented by a multi-disciplinary team under the oversight of the executive director.
