The Theme for July is the NEW ROTARY YEAR

Delray Beach Rotary is entering the new Rotary Year, with several changes envisioned during a Planning Committee meeting at the club's new home at the Aloft Hotel on July 8th. Change is sought to make the Rotary experience better for the members and visitors alike. New President, Nick Basiaga will review the club's new direction at the Club Assembly on Tuesday. Most visibly, we'll see the modern and business friendly look and feel of the meeting room at Aloft. Rotarians will be encouraged to arrive early for networking, starting at 11:45 and the meeting will start at 12:00 sharp. Measures will be taken to insure that the members have 20 uninterrupted minutes of dining for Acquaintance and Fellowship, which is the First Object of Rotary. Each meeting will include a Rotary Minute and the Social Meetings are moved to the first Thursday of the Month. Subsequently, there will be no lunch or Zoom meeting on the first Tuesday. Happy Dollars will be continued and will be conducted by our newly appointed Sergeant-at-Arms, who will manage the resumption of incidental fines to encourage a renewal of traditional Rotary observances.
