The Fund Board

President, President Elect: To Be Announced
Secretary: To Be Announced
Treasurer: To Be Announced

We also honored the Marchman Technical College students with the Awards of Excellence. The August, September and October recipients were not present to receive their awards as they were working. They included, Michelle Aikens, Rebecca Dorelie and Christopher Gonzalez. Their teachers wrote such nice things about them.

Present to accept their awards were Raiden Mazzotta, November recipient and Louis De Benedetto, December recipient. Tonya Shook, representing Marchman Technical College presented them with their awards. Tonia said, "Thank you all so much for the support that you give to our students from August to May. We are honoring our November student, Raiden Mazzotta who is in the Cosmetology Program. Her teacher said that Raiden was in an accident in August and lost her car. She is a single Mom who is trying to teach her child that you don't give up. She takes an Uber to school and is always on time." Raiden said, "It's truly an honor. I am in the Honor Society and also the recipient of the Award of Excellence. I refused to back down despite all of the setbacks that I faced. I ate, slept and breathed cosmetology last year. It took a lot of struggling to get where I am and graduating early., I am showing my son that you can overcome your struggles."

The next student that was honored was Louis Di Benedetto, who is in the Patient Care Program. Tonia said, "Louis is in early every day, has a background in business, and has several jobs. He has great potential and will be successful in anything he chooses to do. Louis said, "I've accepted a job at North Bay. Thank you."

We congratulate all of these students and wish them luck with their endeavors.

We would like to thank Tonia for an interesting and informative program. We will be donating a book to the Richey Elementary School Library in her name.

Wheight, What?!

I discovered a shortcut today. If you put your Fitbit in the dryer, you can get a head start on your steps. I had 3,800 steps in before I put on my pants!

I'm not interested in any diet plan unless it lets me use rollover calories.

The teacher in our Bible class asked a woman to read from the Book of Numbers about the Israelites wandering in the desert. "The Lord heard you when you wailed, 'If only we had meat to eat!'" she began. "Now the Lord will give you meat. You will not eat it for just one day, or two days, or five, or ten or twenty days, but for a month—until you loathe it." When the woman finished, she paused, looked up and said, "Hey, isn't that the Atkins diet?"

My friend Kimberly announced that she had started a diet to lose some pounds she had put on recently.

"Good!" I exclaimed. "I'm ready to start a diet too. We can be dieting buddies and help each other out. When I feel the urge to drive out and get a burger and fries, I'll call you first."

"Great!" she replied. "I'll ride with you."

My sisters and I have weight problems and are always sharing diet tips. One day my oldest sister was showing us a low-fat cookbook and pointed out a chicken dish she had tried the night before. Reading the ingredients, I commented, "It looks like it would taste really bland."

"It did," she replied, "until I added cheese and sour cream."

Although I knew I had put on a few pounds, I didn't consider myself overweight until the day I decided to clean my refrigerator. I sat on a chair in front of the appliance and reached in to wipe the back wall.

While I was in this position, my teenage son came into the kitchen. "Hi, Mom," he said. "Whatcha doin', having lunch?"

I started my diet that day.

After noticing how trim my husband had become, a friend asked me how I had persuaded him to diet. It was then I shared my dark secret: "I put our teenage son's shorts in his underwear drawer."

My daughter couldn't muster the willpower to lose unwanted pounds. One day, watching a svelte friend walking up our driveway, she lamented, "Linda's so skinny it makes me sick."

"If it bothers you," I suggested gently, "why don't you do something about it?"

"Good idea, Mom," she replied. Turning to her friend, she called out, "Hey, Linda, have a piece of chocolate cake."

Needing to shed a few pounds, my husband and I went on a diet that had specific recipes for each meal of the day. I followed the instructions closely, dividing the finished recipe in half for our individual plates. We felt terrific and thought the diet was wonderful—we never felt hungry!

But when we realized we were gaining weight, not losing it, I checked the recipes again. There, in fine print, was "Serves 6."

KNOWTARY ANSWERS!!!

Last Week's KNOW-tary:

1. How can a Rotarian become a Peacebuilder?
Start by enrolling in the Rotary Positive Peace Academy. It's a free self-guided course that you can complete in two hours.
2. They can be made and they can be laid.
They can be bent and they can be broken.
But they cannot be touched. What are they? Rules.
3. What is represented by the following?
Shaken, Not Stirred

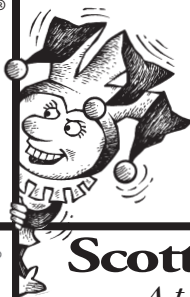

Send your answers to these three questions to Bonnie Howard at:
triciampnpr@tampabay.rr.com by MONDAY at 3:00pm.

The answers will be published in next week's bulletin. A drawing will be held the first Wednesday of the month from all members who submitted correct answers for the previous month.
(If a member has four correct answers for the month, their name will be in the drawing four times).

HELP US END POLIO NOW DISTRICT 6950 POLIOPUS SOCIETY

As a member of a District 6950 Rotary/Rotaract/Satellite Club, I recognize my personal privilege to be able to share in Rotary's effort to wipe out Polio globally.

I hereby commit, by signing below, to make a yearly donation of at least $100 to the Polio Plus program of The Rotary Foundation.

I pledge to do this each year until Polio is officially eradicated.

As such, I will be designated as a member of the District 6950 PolioPlus Society.

Until the last child is immunized,
Polio is just a plane ride away
