President's Message

Good Afternoon Members,

Last Week we had a visit from Officer Adam Brown from FWC, who spoke on a number of topics including poaching, the use of canines, the ability to traverse tough terrain and enforcing the law to protect the environment.

All members are reminded that there will be no speaker this week. Instead, we will be holding our annual Christmas Auction. Members are reminded to bring in their gift donations to help make this event a success. Christmas gifts may be humorous in nature, but are not intended to be gag gifts.

Contrary to notices posted on the events' web page, our booze wagon drawing date does not overlap with this event, it will be set for later next year. However, beginning in January, please start bringing in donations for the booze wagon drawing as well. Members are requested to bring in at least $30 worth of alcohol or make an equivalent dollar donation, which will go towards alcohol purchase.

The next fundraising event we have a scheduled date for is our next Bike Night, which will be held on February 10th, 2024.

After the meeting this Friday, we will have no scheduled meetings until next year, the first of which will be January 5th. Brad is the host for our first meeting back, and he is bringing in Julie Ferguson to talk about the Cape Coral Caring Center.

I hope to see everyone this Friday.

Yours in Rotary Service,
Mark
