President's Message

It's great to know we have such a wonderful Sheriff's Office here in Lee County, Florida. We heard from Deputy Beth Schell, who has been with the LCSO for almost 20 years, about Crime Prevention, and gave us some history about the Sheriff's Office; boy did I learn a bunch!

We took in a couple of bottles for our first fundraiser, the BoozeWagon, and more donations are coming in. Keep on bringing in your bottles. We are also passing out the tickets to sell; for those who missed last week, we will make sure you get your tickets to sell.

This week we are going to hear from Mark Midyett of Lakewood Ranch about Rotary's Disaster Resource Grant. Since we were involved with the purchase of the trailers, this will be something we definitely want to hear more about.

Also, please mark your calendars, so you don't accidentally come to Rotary next Friday. There will be NO Rotary on Friday, September 2, as that is Labor Day weekend. We will see you next on Friday, September 9, when we hear from our City Manager, Rob Hernandez.

Yours in Rotary.
Lisa
