Learning Opportunity of the Day: Introduced by Jim

Erik Elsea (ShelterBox USA Ambassador of the Year 2018, District 6960 Service Above Self recipient 2018-19, Rotary Club of Cape Coral President 2017-18, District 6960 Assistant Governor 2019-20) erikelsea@gmail.com

Topic : Canoe the Mississippi Source to Sea

Erik shared his truly amazing solo canoe trip down the Mississippi River that started in Minnesota and ended in the Gulf of Mexico. The purpose of the trip was to raise awareness and funds for the Shelter Box program. His support team scheduled about 64 Rotary visits along the way. Erik raised $100,000 for the Shelter Box program.

The Shelter Box is a designated Rotary International disaster response program. The program has been nominated for a Nobel Peace Prize for the tremendous work they do worldwide in supporting people after major disasters, including the Syrian refugee crisis, earthquakes, floods, and more. You can go to ShelterBox USA to learn more and donate. Erik's next adventure is kayaking down the Amazon. Stay tuned.

Happy Sad Dollars ♦ Dick was acting Sargent-At-Arms and collected many Happy/Sad dollars.

4 Way test ♦ led by Dee
