addition, they provided an original production of Puccini's La Boheme. This regional opera company enriches our community by presenting high quality opera theater and classical vocal music.

They also provide socially responsible musical education. They do this through their Teaching the Art of Belonging program which is delivered to students at no cost. The Harmony Choir members receive one-hour music classes per week and perform at various venues. There are 6 chapters of this program in the three counties.

Other programs include: Emerging Artists Training, Community Concerts, GO Divas, and adult volunteers.
