February 15th: Program:

Edward J. Scargill better known as Joe Scargill is the Special Agent in Charge of the Jacksonville Field Office for the United States Secret Service. Special agent Scargill is responsible for leading all Secret Service protective, investigative and cyber missions in North Florida. Special Agent Scargill's global experience with the Secret Service has spanned more than 23 years in a variety of assignments. Special Agent Scargill started his career with the Secret Service in the Columbus, Ohio Resident Office. Following that assignment, he was selected as an instructor at the James J Rowley Training Academy, where all special agent trainees, as well as, assigned special agents and uniformed division officers receive their training. In 2007, Special Agent Scargill was selected as the Assistant Attaché to the US Embassy in Sofia, Bulgaria. During his time abroad, Special Agent Scargill had the privilege of traveling extensively throughout Eastern Europe, the Middle East and Africa conducting numerous high risk protective advances for the President of the United States, as well as, conducting complex cyber enabled fraud investigations targeting organized international criminal groups. In 2012, Special Agent Scargill was promoted to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the Detroit Field Office. During his time in Detroit, Special Agent Scargill created and supervised both the Electronic Crimes Task Force and the Mobile Wireless Investigations squad. Special Agent Scargill was then promoted to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of the George HW Bush Protective Division. Prior to his current position of Special Agent in Charge - Jacksonville, Special Agent Scargill was the Special Agent in Charge of the Minneapolis Field Office.

RYLA (Rotary Youth Leadership Awards) is a Leadership Conference held annually. It is designed for high school students who have completed their freshman or sophomore year. This year our Rotary Club will select one student to send to the conference. Our club will pay the student registration fee, so the conference is free to the student. Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA) is an intensive leadership experience organized by Rotary clubs and districts where students develop their skills as a leader while having fun and making connections. To learn more see Paul Yeoman.
