The Open World Armenian Delegation visited TBRCITW this week sharing history and facts about their home country. Thank you to all our host families and to President Logue for coordinating such a great week of programming for these outstanding ladies! Toni Chrabot, a member of our club spoke this week about her time in the FBI. Toni was an Assistant

Special Agent in Charge of the FBI's Jacksonville Field Office and served in a variety of roles including a former FBI Field Executive, Special Agent, Crisis Negotiator and Instructor. In September 2011, she appeared on Dateline NBC's Season Premier Episode titled "Ransom," which featured the kidnapping investigation into the 2009 disappearance of a young mother from Ponte Vedra, Florida. A big thank you to everyone who helped with Rise Against Hunger this past Saturday! 27,000 food packets are now heading to the Philippines! We are looking for your Local Heroes! Please click here to complete the form by April 18th.
