A Purposeful Start to the Rotary Year

By Nidhi Gangan, Reporter

During the club's first business meeting of the new Rotary year, the board – led by President Marisol Harrell – shared a comprehensive overview of its goals and areas of focus. With clear structure and continuity, the club is positioned for a year of steady progress toward service, fellowship, and growth.

Highlights

Weekly meeting assignments – including Program Host, Invocation/Pledge, Greeter, and Reporter – will now be coordinated through DACdb. Programs Chair Sandy Ralston will also distribute a rolling eight-week schedule that will include the schedule of speakers. Members who have arranged a program are directed to submit the speaker's bio and photo at least two weeks before the scheduled presentation.

The board presented the club's annual budget originally shared in May, including a $25-per-quarter dues increase to meet the club's operational needs. The budget will be reviewed regularly to ensure expenses remain aligned with our financial priorities and values.

Quarterly dues invoices will be emailed directly to all members. All payments are to be made payable to Riverside Rotary and directed to club Treasurer Nidhi Gangan. Payments may be made online, by check, or in cash at meetings, whichever is most convenient for you. Reimbursement requests can be sent directly to Nidhi for processing. Unpaid guest attendance fees will be invoiced to the host member. Happy Dollars can be handed to Sergeant-at-Arms Phillip Hobbs.

Members are encouraged to explore the new DACdb "Ignite" app, which provides tools to upload event photos, pay dues, and view Rotary Foundation recognition levels. Download from Google Play or the App Store.

Upcoming in service, our annual dictionary project will take place in October. Please share any additional project ideas with Josh.

The club's Social Committee has scheduled the fall social at Montford Farm, with the holiday gathering date confirmed for Dec. 10 (location to be announced). These events continue to provide space for connection and celebration.

The board is also considering formation of an Impact Companion Club – a model endorsed by Rotary International – which would allow members who cannot attend weekly meetings due to other responsibilities to remain involved through service and social activities. This initiative aims to offer flexibility while upholding the values of Rotary engagement.

Looking ahead, the Rotary Foundation Committee will deliver a detailed presentation in November regarding how Rotary funds are utilized. The goal is to recognize several Paul Harris Fellows at the fall social in October. Members are encouraged to check their current Foundation status on Ignite, so recognition materials may be ordered in a
