President's Message

Hello Oceansiders!

Greetings from the San Francisco Bay area where I am visiting my grandkids Mason (3) and Sophie (almost 1). Makes you appreciate the simple and beautiful things in life! Also makes me think of my times working in developing countries where, no matter how little they had, the children found ways to have fun – sometimes with just a stick and a ball made out of rolled up cloth. Moments like this give real meaning to Rotary’s motto of Service Above Self, as we continue to give back and help make our communities and communities around the world better places for kids to grow up.

We have several ways to give back this month: the OneBlood bus will be at the PCC after our Tuesday meeting; the Satellite club will have their Bingo for Mission House on May 14th at Culhanes and the Beaches Community Kitchen will need our help for Memorial Day cooking. And there will be time for FUN at our Putt-N-Frog at Adventure Landing. In the meantime – see you at ABBQ on Tuesday!

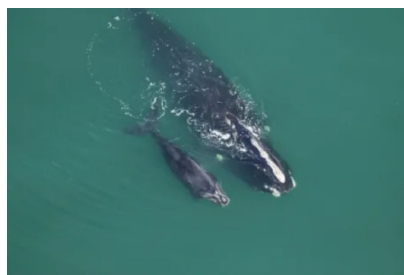

Ken

This Week's Speaker: Jim Thompson, OneBlood

Jim Thompson, account representative with OneBlood, will be speaking to the club on the same day as our blood drive! OneBlood is the local blood bank as well as one of the largest blood banks in the country serving 90% of the hospitals in Florida. We also have areas in Georgia, South Carolina and North Carolina.

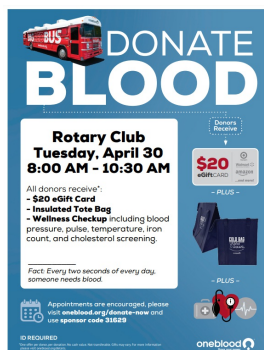

Why are Whales Important?

Check out our own Emme Devonish on a recent podcast for "Solve It! For Kids." Emme talks about her love of the ocean, her work as a "Whale Ambassador," and more as they explore why whales are important!

Enjoy! Emme's Podcast
